The cheerleading team is looking for enthusiastic, dynamic and hardworking students whose primary mission is to represent the school with a spirit of support for other athletic teams, fans and the entire Osan community. The team performs during the football (fall) and basketball (winter) seasons. The team also participates in the school events including pep rallies, spirit rallies. There is an end of Winter season KAIAC Tournament as well as a culminating Far East Tournament.

Open to: All genders and students are welcome
